

Lu Ross Academy Textbook Information and replacement Cost

Beauty Makeup Artistry

Textbook	Publisher	ISBN Number	Replacement Cost
FabJob Guide to Become a Makeup Artist	FabJob	N/A	$39.97

GAINFUL EMPLOYMENT PROGRAM DISCLOSURES AND BPPE DISCLOSURES

Effective July 1, 2011, all career programs that lead to a certificate or degree and are eligible for Financial Aid, must be compliant with the Department of Education's employment disclosure requirements in order to receive Title IV funding. Collectively, DOE refers to these programs as "GE", (Gainful Employment) Programs. The California Bureau of Private Postsecondary Education also has required disclosures that schools must publish. Both Federal and State disclosures are included below.

Makeup Artist

1. Name and Classification (CIP) and SOC codes that program prepares students to enter.

Makeup Artist 12.0406, Makeup Artist

Standard Occupational Code (SOC) 39-5091.00

Go here: <http://www.onetonline.org/link/summary/39-5091.00> for complete occupational description from O NET.

2. On-time completion for graduates 7/01/09 – 6/30/10.

The 120 hour Makeup Artist program was not offered in 2009. (There were no Makeup courses offered in 2009)

3. Normal time in months to complete – 2.3 (10 weeks in the evening)

4. Licensure rate for graduates - There is no licensing requirement for Makeup Artists.

4. Current Tuition and Fees (July 1, 2011).

Registration Fee $ 250

STRF* $ 10

Tuition $ 2,525

Books, Supplies, Equipment $ 800

Total tuition and school fees $3,575

* Student Tuition Recovery Fund Payable to the State of California.

5. Job Placement Rate.

Not applicable for 2009

6. Median Loan Amount.

Financial aid is not available for this program.

Makeup Artists, Theatrical and Performance 2011 Wages

Geography	Median Hourly	Median Annually
California	$36.02	$74,928

Los Angeles County	$42.39	$88,163
Orange County	$18.07	$37,801
San Francisco Bay Area	$19.76	$41,092

Source: Employment Development Department
Labor Market Information Division
<https://www.labormarketinfo.edd.ca.gov/>